November 5, 2018 – The Fred Mitchell Award recognizes 26 place-kickers for their excellence on the football field through the month of October, 2018 season and for continued community service during their off-season. There have been some outstanding performances during the first two months of the season. We appreciate the opportunity to celebrate following kickers, and look forward to the difficult task of selecting one deserving kicker from a field of many.

The recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award will be announced in mid-December based on performance on the football field and in the community. Details are provided at www.fredmitchellaward.com. The season's watch lists and updates may also be found on Facebook (<http://facebook.com/132497086863493>), and on Twitter at @kickeruww.

The breakdown of the 26 place-kickers is as follows:

- Collegiate Division – 7 FCS, 8 Division II, 9 Division III, 1 NAIA, and 1 NJCAA
- State – the place-kickers play at schools located in 22 different states (AL, CT, IL, IA, IN, MA (2), MI, MN (2), MS, MO, NC (2), NE, NY, OR, PA, TX, UT, VA, WA, and WI (2)).
- Year – 9 Seniors, 9 Juniors, 5 Sophomores, and 3 Freshman

Senior from continues to add to his Eastern kick scoring record, and is making some history as a punter as well ... Thus far in 2018, Alcobendas is 10-of-10 kicking field goals (one of just three players in FCS to be perfect on the season) and has converted on 40-of-41 extra points (one was blocked) to currently have 70 points on the season. He is 16th in FCS in scoring (8.8 per game) and is 25th with an average of 1.25 field goals per game. In his 36-game career, Alcobendas has scored 270 points to move past Troy Griggs (231 from 1998-01) and Mike Jarrett (236 from 2008-11) for the all-time EWU lead. Alcobendas has also established EWU career records for extra points made (181) and attempted (187), breaking the previous records held by Jarrett (2009-11) with 143 makes and 150 attempts. Alcobendas has made 30-of-41 field goals in his career to rank fourth in school history for field goals made and seventh in attempts. In his career, he has 107 kickoffs for a 57.4 average (6,143 total yards) with 17 touchbacks. Alcobendas has twice been rewarded this season (three in his career) with ROOT Sports Big Sky Conference Special Teams Player honors. His most recent honor came after he kicked a pair of field goals in EWU's 14-6 loss at 13th-ranked Weber State on Oct. 13, and also added a punting record to his resume. He kicked a 31-yard field goal in the second quarter and a 27-yarder in the third quarter to remain perfect on the season ... He originally broke the school record for career kick scoring against Montana State on Sept. 29 and received his second career ROOT Sports Big Sky Conference Special Teams Player award on Oct. 1 as a result. He suffered a knee injury in 2014 at Bobcat Stadium, then returned two years later and won his first Big Sky POW honor in 2016 after a performance in Bozeman. He scored 11 points in 2016 and had 10 more in this year's 34-17 victory ... Alcobendas entered the season as one of 34 placekickers nationwide to be named to the watch list for the 2018 Fred Mitchell Award. The recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award will be chosen at the end of the year based on excellence on the football field and in the community ... As a bonus for his past suffering, the 2013 graduate of Camas (Wash.) High School received a sixth year to complete four years of eligibility because of injuries that cost him a pair of seasons. Alcobendas had to sit out both the 2013 and 2015 seasons because of knee injuries – one suffered while playing in his senior year of soccer.
